List Of Documents Establishing Rights And Obligations Between Civil Union Partners

Pursuant to Section 17-73(e) of the Tucson Code, the undersigned provide this list describing additional documents, such as contracts and agreements, that document the rights, responsibilities and obligations that we have established between us. We acknowledge that in order to prevent public access to private, personal information, we may not submit, and the City will not maintain, the contracts and agreements themselves.

Agreements between the parties regarding the management and ownership of real and personal property: _____

Agreements between the parties regarding the obligations that either or both may have agreed to assume regarding the existing children or other family members of one or both of the parties:

Agreements between the parties regarding the obligations that either or both may have agreed to assume regarding prospective children of one or both of the parties: _____

Agreements between the parties regarding the disposition of their property upon the death of either party: _____

Agreements for resolving any disputes that may arise should the relationship dissolve, through alternative dispute resolution procedures or otherwise: _____

Documents that establish any other rights or obligations that may be legally exchanged by and between the parties: _____

We acknowledge that any documents described above are only effective to the extent as provided under the laws of the State of Arizona and the United States; and that the City of Tucson does not represent or warrant that any agreements or other documents we describe herein are legally enforceable.
